

Social Reformers Summer School

12th—15th July 2018

“...the people who know their God shall be strong, and take action.” Daniel 11:32

Do you believe you are called to make a difference in the world through your life and work?
Do you long to see more truth, humility and justice in our society?

Then this Summer School in Cambridge is just for you...

Over the centuries Christians have cared for the broken and outcast, challenged corruption, and established initiatives to move society closer to God’s intentions and ideals.

The School lays the foundations for social transformation and helps you develop strategies for engagement in your own context and calling.

Who is it for?

The Social Reformers Summer School is designed for people aged between 20 and 40 who are recent graduates, young professionals and others in business, public services or the charity sector.

Dates and venue

The Summer School is held at Westminster College, Madingley Road, Cambridge CB3 0AA. It begins at 12.30 on Thursday 12th July, and ends after church on Sunday, 15th July.

Programme

Day 1: Profiles of social reformers. We will look at the lives of reformers such as Thomas Clarkson, Toyohiko Kagawa and Florence Nightingale, and explore what it takes to be someone God uses to make a lasting impact.

Day 2: Strategy for social reform. Many people want to get involved in social justice issues, but what is a specifically biblical approach to changing society? We will explore the biblical and relational framework for social reform advocated by the Jubilee Centre, and consider case studies from different sectors of society.

Day 3: 'Where do I start?' Through a comprehensive workshop you will learn how to define the problem, build a team and design a strategy for leading initiatives that make a lasting impact on people's lives and wider society.

"Come and be inspired, dream, connect and collaborate with others and be fired up and sent out to shape the future"
— Andrew, 2017 participant
